

Change of Life

These Women were Helped Through Woman's Great Crisis by Mrs. Pinkham—All Middle-Aged Women Should Read Their Letters.

Nine Years of Suffering

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—When I first wrote to you, I was in a very bad condition. I was passing through the change of life, and the doctors said I had bladder and liver trouble. I had suffered for nine years. Doctors failed to do me any good. Since I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, my health has improved very much. I will gladly recommend your medicine to others and am sure that it will prove as great a blessing to them as it has to me."—Mrs. Geo. H. JUNE, 901 DeKalb Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Relief Came Promptly

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I had been under treatment with the doctors for four years, and seemed to get no better. I thought I would try your medicine. My trouble was change of life, and I must say that I never had anything help me so much as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Relief came almost immediately. I have better health now than I ever had. I feel like a new woman, perfectly strong. I give Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound all the credit, and would not do without your medicine for anything. I have recommended it to several of my friends. There is no need of women suffering so much, for Mrs. Pinkham's remedies are a sure cure."—MAHALA BUTLER, Bridgewater, Ill.

No woman is so healthy but at this crisis in her life she needs advice and help from the most competent source. Mrs. Pinkham will advise such women without charge on request.

Experienced Great Benefit

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound during change of life and derived great benefit from its use."—MARY E. JAMES, 136 Cuydon St., Bradford, Pa.

Mrs. Harold Relieved of Pain

"I had pains in my head and back and could not stand on my feet without causing terrible pains in abdomen. I was short of breath and could not sleep. I tried several doctors but none helped me. I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in a paper and before I had taken half a bottle I felt better than I had for months. I have taken several bottles and am now well."—Mrs. R. E. HARROLD, Clinton, Ill.

IMPERTINENT SIMIANS.

An Experience in the Monkey Temple at Banaras.

On the occasion of our visit to the monkey temple at Banaras we had provided ourselves with popcorn and other goodies which we expected to offer for their holinesses. But the monkeys did not give us a chance to do that. They snatched the dainties from our hands, and when our supplies were exhausted they amused themselves by mimicking us.

One of our party, who had a bad cold, used his handkerchief with considerable emphasis. Scarcely had he replaced his handkerchief in his pocket when a monkey seized the protruding end, pulled it out and gave an excellent imitation of the act. Then, of course, some of us had kodaks, and after we had taken several pictures another personification of impudence picked up a little block of wood which lay upon the ground and with it took several snapshots at us.

A third ill conducted simian (a vain female, who deserted her infant for the purpose) grabbed from my shoulders a red chudidar scarf and in a few flying leaps carried it to a lofty minaret. There she put it on and evidently "fancied herself" immensely. But she was not allowed to retain her prize. In about three minutes at least 40 monkeys had bit a piece of my precious chudidar.

Then our native guide informed me that the monkeys were very fond of scarfs and that they captured a great many on the stone "chairs" near the temple while their owners were bathing in the river. Perhaps on the principle that "misery loves company" he seemed to think his item of news ought to console me; but, although the "monkeyshines" continued as long as we stopped in the temple "company," I no longer found them quite so ludicrous.—Chautauquan.

SPELLING REFORM.

To the unaccustomed eye the reformed spelling adopted by the University of Chicago looks like a college yell.—Chicago Tribune.

Fanciful spelling is to be adopted by the publishers of the University of Chicago. Between the two systems of spelling now in vogue it should be possible for the man who can't spell at all to make a pretty good showing.—Chicago Post.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescription from a reputable physician, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surface of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and is made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by Druggists, price 50c per bottle. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

RAILWAY TIES.

Vienna's street railway system cost $40,000,000, and it is estimated that it will pay for itself in ten years.

The report of the Wisconsin state railroad commissioner shows that nearly 25,000 men are employed on railways in the state.

The Big Four railroad has planted a large tract of land in Indiana with quick growing trees, which will be converted into cross ties.

Steam railway passenger rates to India average 2.36 cents per mile first class, 1.15 second class and only 3 for third class. That is incomparably cheaper than charges in the United States.

SOMEWHAT CAUSTIC REPLY FROM GRIGGS

Attorney General Writes a W. C. T. U. Officer.

REGARDING CANTEN LAW

Says the President is Enforcing the Act According to its Real Meaning and Suggests That the Society's Circular B Mod. A J.

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—Attorney General Griggs, who has become involved in a controversy with the Woman's Christian Temperance union over the anticanteneen law, has written a caustic letter to Margaret Dye Ellis, superintendent of legislation for that body. She recently issued a circular urging members of the union to write to President McKinley reminding him of his promise to a W. C. T. U. committee to reconsider the construction of the law, to see whether the attorney general's interpretations were correct. Attorney Griggs says: "Inasmuch as I assume that you are not willing to disseminate a false statement, and especially with reference to the president of the United States, I deem it my duty to call your attention to the fact that shortly after the visit of the committee which you refer to, the president did refer to the subject, general law law you have made, and asked him to go over the question and answer his opinion. The attorney general did so and reported to the president that after a careful consideration of the case he was unable to come to any conclusion different from that first reported."

Furthermore, at the request of the president, the legal effect of the anticanteneen law was considered by the present secretary of war, whose duty it is to enforce the law to the extent of its legal effect, and that officer concurred in the views and opinion given to the president by the attorney general. Consequently, the president has been enforcing the law according to its real meaning as interpreted to him by the officers of the government who are charged with its interpretation and enforcement.

"I respectfully suggest, therefore, that you modify your circular letter by stating the real facts of the case, and that you take pains to see that whatever pressure may be brought upon the president shall be pressure based upon a true understanding of the facts."

CASHING DRAFTS ABROAD.

Easy Banking Methods Which Cause Americans Much Surprise.

"The continental banking method is a great surprise to Americans," said a resident of New Orleans who has just returned from a trip abroad. "When I was in Paris last month, I met a friend one day who had an English draft for $100 on one of the largest banks in the city and wanted to get the money. He had nobody to identify him, but said, half jokingly, that he was going to try for it anyway, and we went to the place to get it."

"We were shown up stairs to a large reception room set aside especially for customers, and presently a messenger came in and took the draft. About a dozen other people were also waiting in the room, and after a delay of about ten minutes a well-dressed young gentleman came to the door and bowed out in a loud voice, 'Mr. John Smith.' My friend told him John Smith for short got up and was handed a bundle of bank notes. No questions were asked."

"I was astonished, and in going out I took occasion to ask the well-dressed young gentleman whether the bank wasn't taking desperate chances doing business in that catch as catch can fashion. 'And why?' he inquired, opening his eyes. I tried to explain, and he shrugged his shoulders. 'We have never had any losses,' he said."—New Orleans Times Democrat.

Greatest Knitters in the World. All the women of Shetland knit. They learn the art in early childhood and continue it all through their lives. The wool used for their knitting is grown on the islands and is carded and spun by the people themselves. Machinery they have not except the primitive spinning wheel. Many of the most elaborate shawls have taken years to make and some even years, so that a very fine shawl may be worth as much as $150 or $200. Most of the knitting is, however, of the more home and serviceable kind and may be bought from the women themselves for very moderate prices.

The manner in which the washing of all shawls is accomplished in Shetland is a matter of interest to most visitors. They are washed carefully in soap lather, and then to prevent their shrinking they are laid from end to end on a large square wooden frame and placed outside the cottage to dry.—Chicago News.

LITTLE ROCK, Feb. 1.—Governor Dan W. Jones has issued a formal announcement as a candidate for the United States senate. Governor Jones declares for expansion and the Chicago platform.

"After doctors failed to cure me of pneumonia I used One Minute Cure. It cured me. It is also the best remedy on earth for whooping cough. It cured my grandchildren of the worst case," writes Jno. Berry, Logansport, Pa. It is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. Cures coughs, colds, croup and throat and lung troubles. It prevents consumption. Children always like it. Mothers endorse it. Hargis' Pharmacy, John Sheppard, S. K. Min.
